

WILSON FRAMING
PLAN FOR PEACEWill Discuss Proposal With His Cabinet Friday.

REGARD ELECTION AS FARCE

American Officials May Send Note to Mexico in Few Days Setting Forth
the Principle That Constitutional Government Must Be Established
Out of Chaos and Suggesting the Means Therefor.Washington, Oct. 30.—President Wilson has under consideration a new plan for restoring peace in Mexico
which he will discuss with his cabinet Friday and make public within a few days.Officials were reticent as to what is contemplated, but the solution upon which the president and Secretary Bryan are working is believed to be more than any suggestions heretofore
made for the pacification of the Southern republic.High officials of the government declared that the purposes and aims of the government had been explained
in the president's speeches at Swarthmore, Pa., and Mobile, Ala.The American government's course of action will be embodied in a formal note, which it is expected will set forth the principle that constitutional government alone must be established out of the chaos in Mexico, and will suggest means for accomplishing that purpose.Although the state department has not been informed officially of the reported purpose of General Huerta to declare General Blanquet having been elected it is certain that in line with previous declarations the election of last Sunday will not be recognized as constitutional.The inability of the Huerta government to conduct a constitutional election, it is thought, will lead the American government to suggest a method of holding the elections in which safeguards and guarantees can be given which will permit the Constitutionalists to participate freely.Diplomats generally here believe that before suggestions concerning any election can be carried out the elimination of Huerta from the situation must be accomplished.With the united support of foreign governments it is thought by some officials here that the retirement of Huerta could be accomplished, though others, who know of Huerta's personality, declare he will not yield to any foreign pressure and will retire only if the Constitutional arms are successful.

RUSH TROOPS TO MONTEREY

Mexican Regulars and Rebels Preparing for Battle.Eagle Pass, Tex., Oct. 30.—Armies on both sides in Northeast Mexico are concentrating at Monterey in one of the largest troop movements in Mexico's recent revolution.The Constitutional forces will number 6,000. The federals have rushed ten field guns from Piedras Negras and left but 200 men to guard that place.

CRITICISES LAND POLICY

Congressman Addresses Dry Farming
Congress.Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 30.—Representative Scott Ferris of Oklahoma, chairman of the house committee on public lands, in an address before the International Dry Farming congress, criticized the administration of affairs in the interior department and assailed federal land laws now in force as a
"jargon of inconsistencies that retard progress and development.""Our land laws are in many respects crude, irreconcilable, inefficient without uniformity, confusing to the settler and impossible of interpretation by the layman," Mr. Ferris declared."During my service in congress we have had four secretaries of the interior, Ballinger, Garfield, Fisher and Lane. The views of these four men have differed in policy, on questions of law and taxation, and many of the decisions made are actually obstructive to the settlement of the lands of the West."

PLAN ATTACK ON PRESIDENT

New Jersey Suffragists Will Visit
White House Nov. 16.Washington, Oct. 30.—Women from President Wilson's own state will swoop down on the White House Nov.
16 to discuss "votes for women" with the president.Suffragists from New Jersey are coming then to labor with their senators and congressmen in support of the constitutional amendment providing universal suffrage.

HOT MUNICIPAL CAMPAIGN

Sulzer's Graft Inspector Is Taking an Active Part.New York, Oct. 30.—New York's heated municipal campaign was kept in the feverish stage. John A. Hennessy, Governor Sulzer's graft inspector, whose speeches for the Fusion ticket headed by John Purroy Mitchell have been a striking feature of the campaign, kept up his attacks
on Tammany Hall, and Edward E.
McCall, the Tammany nominee for mayor, laying stress in his talks on charges of barge canal graft by which he declared Tammany benefited.Former Judge McCall attacked Mitchel for his former connection as counsel for the corporation.MOTHER AND WIDOW ARE PROSTRATEDFuneral of Charles G. Gates at New York Sunday.New York, Oct. 30.—Funeral services for Charles G. Gates, son of the late John W. Gates, who died suddenly at Cody, Wyo., will be held at the Madison Episcopal church here at 2:30
p. m. Sunday.The special train from the West bearing Mr. Gates' body is expected to reach here Friday. It has been given right of way over the Burlington road.
Mr. Gates will be buried beside his father in Woodlawn cemetery. Because the mausoleum erected by the Gates family is still in process of construction the body will be placed temporarily in the family vault.Mrs. John W. Gates consulted with her son's widow regarding the arrangements for the funeral. Both are prostrated with grief and deny themselves to all but a few close friends.
Herbert L. Jones, a friend, is arranging the funeral for them.Officers and members of the New York Automobile club, Automobile
Club of America, Atlantic Yacht club,
Westchester Country club, Columbia Yacht club, Chicago Athletic club and Calumet club of Chicago, of which Mr.
Gates was member, and a host of friends, have extended their sympathy by telegram, letter and in person to Mr. Gates' widow and his aged mother.

OPPOSE LA FOLLETTE BILL

Steamer Companies Say Seamen's
Measure Is Unreasonable.Cleveland, Oct. 30.—Representatives of forty lake passenger steamer companies held a session here to devise plans for organizing to oppose the La Follette seamen's bill now pending in congress.Some of the provisions of the bill, they say, cannot be complied with
and for lake steamer companies which are never over half an hour's sailing from land
some of the provisions are unreasonable.

ordinary session of congress.CONTROVERSY ON CANAL SUBJECTSGarrison Attempting to Determine Disputed Points.

TOLLS MATTER NOT SETTLED

Impression Is That Great Britain Got Better of United States and Many Congressmen Favor "Bucking Up."
Present Administration Different From Predecessors.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 30.—[Special.]— Secretary Garrison will try to determine governmental questions while he is in Panama, the question having been raised whether a military or civil government is better for the zone and the canal. Civil authority failed in the attempt to construct the canal, and military authority was successful.People generally will continue to have faith in Colonel Goethals and his recommendations. They know him, and they do not know Commissioner Metcalfe, who was made commissioner and governor on the recommendation of Secretary Bryan. There is going to be quite a canal controversy in congress during the next session.

The Canal Tolls Again.

It is evident that the matter of free tolls for American coastwise ships will come up, probably on the recommendation of President Wilson that the law allowing free ships be repealed or suspended. That free ships really conflict with the Hay-Pauncefote treaty
there can be little doubt upon the plain reading of the language, no matter what might have been intended. It was another case of where Great Britain got the best of the United States in her diplomacy.Our government builds the canal and maintains it at an enormous expense.
Great Britain and Canada, our agricultural and commercial rival on the north, get the same privileges as the people of this country. President Wilson will have great difficulty in getting any modification of the free tolls through congress, for there is a strong feeling in favor of "bucking up"
against old England on this matter.

Something Different.

Have you noticed something strange,
something different, in this administration as compared with those which preceded it? I mean in regard to conversation, talk, speechmaking, in fact.
Only when it could not be avoided has President Wilson consented to make speeches since he became president.
Everybody remembers that both Roosevelt and Taft were willing to talk almost any time and would make long journeys to do so. With Wilson it is different.Secretary Bryan is sent to speak for the president at one place or another.
Congressman Henry of Texas goes on a like mission. Cabinet officers or congressmen represent the president
where talk is necessary. Of course there are other differences between this and other administrations, but this is worth noting.

Bryan Ever Ready.

It is not a particular hardship for
Mr. Bryan to talk on these different occasions. He has never been known to shirk a duty of that kind. While he is quite reticent in the state department and never does much talking in private, upon the platform, at banquets and where the multitude can listen and encourage him he always seems at home and a perfectly willing talker. Maybe Wilson was shrewd when he made Bryan his premier.
Maybe he was looking ahead to the advantage it would be to have a man to do the administration talking to the big crowds.

Woman Suffrage Vote.

There will be a vote on the proposed constitutional amendment for woman suffrage in the senate. Whether it will please the suffragists is another question. In fact, it is doubtful whether it will get half the votes of the senate, and two-thirds are necessary to pass it. But it is possible that the senators will prefer to pass it along to the people and the house of representatives.

Lacey's Monuments.

Congressman Kirkpatrick of Iowa in a short "leave to print" statement in the Congressional Record paid a tribute to John F. Lacey, who represented his district for so many years in the house. Few will ever see the tribute, but millions will see the monuments to Lacey in this country. During the years he was in congress he was indefatigable in the work of preserving the nature show places in the United States.A score or more of interesting spots
such as the wind cave in South Dakota and the petrified forest in Arizona have forever been reserved through the efforts of Lacey. Besides he was also instrumental in having game preserves created. He did much for nature while he was in congress.

Uncertain Senate.

"I realize," said Leader Underwood
in the house, "the uncertainty of any piece of legislation pending in the United States senate where there is no cloture. No man can predict with certainty what will happen." But he is looking forward to the time when he may be part of that uncertainty.

phus Busch, filed here, makes charitable bequests aggregating $170,000 to a number of St. Louis institutions and places the bulk of the estate in trust, naming Mrs. Lilly Busch, Charles Nagel and August A. Busch trustees.In addition to the charitable bequests set forth in the will Mr. Busch left a private memorandum requesting members of his family to make certain other donations, most of which are private in their nature.Eight St. Louis institutions are to receive under this memorandum a total of $40,000, making the total bequests for charitable purposes $210,- 000. The estate is valued at $500,000.ATTORNEY ARGUES FOR ANOTHER TRIALStates Objections to Conviction of Alleged Dynamiters.Chicago, Oct. 30.—Objections to the convictions of thirty of the thirty-three "dynamite plotters" at Indianapolis last December were laid before the United States circuit court of appeals in an appeal of the men to have the verdict set aside.Among other allegations of counsel was the charge that the men had been punished twice for the same offense.
On behalf of Frank M. Ryan, president of the Iron Workers' union, Olaf
A. Treitmo, San Francisco, and the other labor union officials adjudged guilty of complicity in the McNamara dynamite plots, Chester H. Krum, their chief counsel, argued before the court:That even if the defendants had been guilty of illegally transporting dynamite and nitroglycerin on passenger trains in violation of federal law, and even if they had blown up the work of contractors who refused to join the union, the statute of limitation had run against the offenses before the men were tried.That the federal court at Indianapolis committed an error in allowing Ortie E. McManigal and Edward Clark, confessed dynamiters, to testify against the other men, because Clark and McManigal were co-defendants and their testimony was incompetent.That the destruction of nonunion
work was an offense against the state and not against the federal government.

among striking miners in the South-

precipitated at the office of the Southwestern Fuel company, where a battle waged between strikers and a handful of mine guards.After defeating the guards and capturing the mine offices, in which the postoffice also is housed, the strikers are charged with having set fire to the building, which was destroyed, together with its contents of United States mail, money orders and money.Postmaster Samples declared there were evidences that the mail had been rifled before the building was fired, as envelopes, opened, were found nearby, half burned.The strikers' camp at Ludlow was devoid of all show of rifles and revolvers which had been prevalent for the last two days. Only two rifles were in evidence, in the hands of two strikers acting as pickets upon the side of the camp bordering the mine property.Officers of the Colorado national guard, which completed its organization and established its camp on the outskirts of the city, say the rifles and ammunition of the strikers had not been surrendered to them.Mine guards and strikers have been given twenty-four hours to surrender

EATON CASE GOES TO JURY

of Jennie May Eaton, charged with the murder of her husband, Rear Adwith the arguments of counsel, the charge of Judge Aiken occupying only

Eaton, spoke for four hours, drawing a picture of the defendant as a loving, self-sacrificing wife, entirely justified in her beliefs about her husband.She was a "martyr" and her only fault was that she "loved too much,"
her attorney declared.District Attorney Albert F. Barker, after outlining the evidence against the accused, asked that if the jury believed the defendant was irresponsible she be found "not guilty by reason of insanity.""She is more dangerous than a rattlesnake and there is no telling whom she may bite next if she is allowed her freedom," he added.

WILSON FRAMING PLAN FOR PEACE

Will Discuss Proposal With His Cabinet Friday.

REGARD ELECTION AS FARCE

American Officials May Send Note to Mexico in Few Days Setting Forth the Principle That Constitutional Government Must Be Established Out of Chaos and Suggesting the Means Therefor.

Washington, Oct. 30.—President Wilson has under consideration a new plan for restoring peace in Mexico which he will discuss with his cabinet Friday and make public within a few days.

Officials were reticent as to what is contemplated, but the solution upon which the president and Secretary Bryan are working is believed to be more than any suggestions heretofore made for the pacification of the Southern republic.

High officials of the government declared that the purposes and aims of the government had been explained in the president's speeches at Swarthmore, Pa., and Mobile, Ala.

The American government's course of action will be embodied in a formal note, which it is expected will set forth the principle that constitutional government alone must be established out of the chaos in Mexico, and will suggest means for accomplishing that purpose.

Although the state department has not been informed officially of the reported purpose of General Huerta to declare General Blanquet having been elected it is certain that in line with previous declarations the election of last Sunday will not be recognized as constitutional.

The inability of the Huerta government to conduct a constitutional election, it is thought, will lead the American government to suggest a method of holding the elections in which safeguards and guarantees can be given which will permit the Constitutionalists to participate freely.

Diplomats generally here believe that before suggestions concerning any election can be carried out the elimination of Huerta from the situation must be accomplished.

With the united support of foreign governments it is thought by some officials here that the retirement of Huerta could be accomplished, though others, who know of Huerta's personality, declare he will not yield to any foreign pressure and will retire only if the Constitutionalists are successful.

The Constitutionalists forces will number 6,000. The federals have rushed ten field guns from Piedras Negras and left but 200 men to guard that place.

Congressman Addresses Dry Farming Congress.

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 30.—Representative Scott Ferris of Oklahoma, chairman of the house committee on public lands, in an address before the International Dry Farming congress, criticized the administration of affairs in the interior department and assailed federal land laws now in force as a "jargon of inconsistencies that retard progress and development."

"Our land laws are in many respects crude, irreconcilable, inefficient without uniformity, confusing to the settler and impossible of interpretation by the layman," Mr. Ferris declared.

"During my service in congress we have had four secretaries of the interior, Ballinger, Garfield, Fisher and Lane. The views of these four men have differed in policy, on questions of law and taxation, and many of the decisions made are actually obstructive to the settlement of the lands of the West."

PLAN ATTACK ON PRESIDENT

New Jersey Suffragists Will Visit White House Nov. 16.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Women from President Wilson's own state will swoop down on the White House Nov. 16 to discuss "votes for women" with the president.

Suffragists from New Jersey are coming then to labor with their senators and congressmen in support of the constitutional amendment providing universal suffrage.

ing Currency Bill.

IMPORTANT CHANGES LIKELY

Membership of Reserve Board Is Increased From Seven to Nine and an Agreement Is Made to Eliminate the Secretary of Agriculture and the Comptroller of the Currency.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Important changes in the administration currency bill resulted from the first day's executive work on the measure by the senate committee.

The committee passed over for later action the proposition to substitute a central government controlled bank for the regional bank plan in the bill, on which the members were evenly divided, and proceeded to perfect the details of the measure.

The complexion of the proposed federal reserve board was materially altered by amendments adopted and it probably will be further changed.

It was decided to increase the membership of the board from seven, as fixed in the house bill, to nine, and to eliminate the secretary of agriculture and the comptroller of the currency from service on the board.

Another amendment is pending to take off the board the secretary of the treasury and to remove all ex-officio members.

The committee decided to arrange the terms so that one member's service would expire each year. This provision is designed to meet the demand that the service of members of the board be given continuity to enable them to profit by their experience on the board.

It was decided to eliminate the organization committee proposed by the house bill and to have the federal reserve board appointed immediately, with the power to organize and place in operation any system devised, whether a central bank or a regional bank scheme, is finally agreed upon.

BOY THIEF WILL TELL ALL

Washburn-Crosby Cashier to Implicate Girl.

New York, Oct. 30.—John C. Schildknecht, the twenty-three-year-old bookkeeper and cashier who disappeared from his $18 a week desk in the Washburn-Crosby Flour company's office Aug. 29, about the time the concern found a shortage of $55,000, was committed to the Toms in default of $50,000 bail set by Judge Malone.

Schildknecht said he was through with "the crooked life" and wanted to tell everything. His story, he said, would show that the greater part of the money taken by him found its way into the hands of Edie McMinn, the girl with whom he associated, and of the gang with which he lived.

WILSON INVITATIONS OUT

Number of Guests Summoned to White House Wedding.

Washington, Oct. 30.—Invitations for the White House wedding on Nov. 25 are being issued. The invitations are engraved simply and read:

"The president and Mrs. Wilson request the pleasure of the presence of... at the wedding of their daughter, Miss Jessie Woodrow, to Mr. Francis Bowes Sayre, on Nov. 25, 1913, at half after 4 o'clock at the White House."

The number of invitations has not been finally decided upon.

AGED WOMAN IS MURDERED

Husband Attempts to Take His Own Life by Shooting.

Perth, N. H., Oct. 30.—The eighty-year-old wife of Ernest McCoy, a farmer, was found murdered by a revolver bullet in her home.

McCoy made an unsuccessful attempt to end his own life by shooting just as his three daughters arrived hurriedly in response to letters he had written them saying he was about to commit suicide. He is expected to recover.

Mrs. McCoy had not been seen for ten days by neighbors. Medical Referee Moran, in charge of the inquest, said she had been dead several days.

HOT MUNICIPAL CAMPAIGN

Sulzer's Graft Inspector Is Taking an Active Part.

New York, Oct. 30.—New York's heated municipal campaign was kept in the feverish stage. John A. Hennessy, Governor Sulzer's graft inspector, whose speeches for the Fusion ticket headed by John Purroy Mitchell have been a striking feature of the campaign, kept up his attacks on Tammany Hall, and Edward E. McCall, the Tammany nominee for mayor, laying stress in his talks on charges of barge canal graft by which he declared Tammany benefited.

Former Judge McCall attacked Mitchell for his former connection as counsel for the corporation.

MOTHER AND WIDOW
ARE PROSTRATED

Funeral of Charles G. Gates at
New York Sunday.

New York, Oct. 30.—Funeral services for Charles G. Gates, son of the late John W. Gates, who died suddenly at Cody, Wyo., will be held at the Madison Episcopal church here at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

The special train from the West bearing Mr. Gates' body is expected to reach here Friday. It has been given right of way over the Burlington road. Mr. Gates will be buried beside his father in Woodlawn cemetery. Because the mausoleum erected by the Gates family is still in process of construction the body will be placed temporarily in the family vault.

Mrs. John W. Gates consulted with her son's widow regarding the arrangements for the funeral. Both are prostrated with grief and deny themselves to all but a few close friends. Herbert L. Jones, a friend, is arranging the funeral for them.

Officers and members of the New York Automobile club, Automobile Club of America, Atlantic Yacht club, Westchester Country club, Columbia Yacht club, Chicago Athletic club and Calumet club of Chicago, of which Mr. Gates was a member, and a host of friends, have extended their sympathy by telegram, letter and in person to Mr. Gates' widow and his aged mother.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 30.—Hearings on the motion for a new trial for Leo M. Frank, sentenced to hang for the murder of Mary Phagan, a fourteen-year-old factory girl, were ended before Superior Court Judge Roan.

Judge Roan said he would announce his decision Friday.

Steamer Companies Say Seamen's Measure Is Unreasonable.

Cleveland, Oct. 30.—Representatives of forty lake passenger steamer companies held a session here to devise plans for organizing to oppose the La Follette seamen's bill now pending in congress.

Some of the provisions of the bill, they say, cannot be complied with and for lake steamers which are never over half an hour's sailing from land some of the provisions are unreasonable.

CONTROVERSY ON CANAL SUBJECTS

Garrison Attempting to Determine Disputed Points.

TOLLS MATTER NOT SETTLED

Impression Is That Great Britain Got Better of United States and Many Congressmen Favor "Bucking Up." Present Administration Different From Predecessor's.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 30.—[Special.]—Secretary Garrison will try to determine governmental questions while he is in Panama, the question having been raised whether a military or civil government is better for the zone and the canal. Civil authority failed in the attempt to construct the canal, and military authority was successful.

People generally will continue to have faith in Colonel Goethals and his recommendations. They know him, and they do not know Commissioner Metcalfe, who was made commissioner and governor on the recommendation of Secretary Bryan. There is going to be quite a canal controversy in congress during the next session.

The Canal Tolls Again.

It is evident that the matter of free tolls for American coastwise ships will come up, probably on the recommendation of President Wilson that the law allowing free ships be repealed or suspended. That free ships really conflict with the Hay-Pauncefote treaty there can be little doubt upon the plain reading of the language, no matter what might have been intended. It was another case of where Great Britain got the best of the United States in her diplomacy.

Our government builds the canal and maintains it at an enormous expense. Great Britain and Canada, our agricultural and commercial rival on the north, get the same privileges as the people of this country. President Wilson will have great difficulty in getting any modification of the free tolls through congress, for there is a strong feeling in favor of "bucking up" against old England on this matter.

Something Different.

Have you noticed something strange, something different, in this administration as compared with those which preceded it? I mean in regard to conversation, talk, speechmaking, in fact. Only when it could not be avoided has President Wilson consented to make speeches since he became president. Everybody remembers that both Roosevelt and Taft were willing to talk almost any time and would make long journeys to do so. With Wilson it is different.

Secretary Bryan is sent to speak for the president at one place or another. Congressman Henry of Texas goes on a like mission. Cabinet officers or congressmen represent the president where talk is necessary. Of course there are other differences between this and other administrations, but this is worth noting.

Bryan Ever Ready.

It is not a particular hardship for Mr. Bryan to talk on these different occasions. He has never been known to shirk a duty of that kind. While he is quite reticent in the state department and never does much talking in private, upon the platform, at banquets and where the multitude can listen and encourage him he always seems at home and a perfectly willing talker. Maybe Wilson was shrewd when he made Bryan his premier. Maybe he was looking ahead to the advantage it would be to have a man to do the administration talking to the big crowds.

Woman Suffrage Vote.

There will be a vote on the proposed constitutional amendment for woman suffrage in the senate. Whether it will please the suffragists is another question. In fact, it is doubtful whether it will get half the votes of the senate, and two-thirds are necessary to pass it. But it is possible that the senators will prefer to pass it along to the people and the house of representatives.

Lacey's Monuments.

Congressman Kirkpatrick of Iowa in a short "leave to print" statement in the Congressional Record paid a tribute to John F. Lacey, who represented his district for so many years in the house. Few will ever see the tributes, but millions will see the monuments to Lacey in this country. During the years he was in congress he was indefatigable in the work of preserving the nature show places in the United States.

A score or more of interesting spots such as the wind cave in South Dakota and the petrified forest in Arizona have forever been reserved through the efforts of Lacey. Besides he was also instrumental in having game preserves created. He did much for nature while he was in congress.

Uncertain Senate.

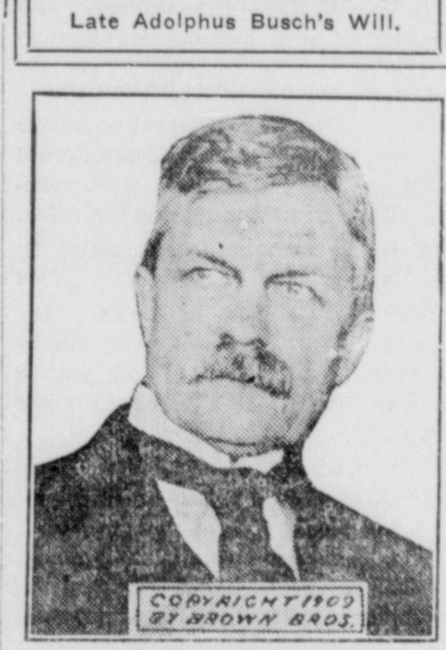

"I realize," said Leader Underwood in the house, "the uncertainty of any piece of legislation pending in the United States senate where there is no cloture. No man can predict with certainty what will happen." But he is looking forward to the time when he may be part of that uncertainty.

In addition to the charitable bequests set forth in the will Mr. Busch left a private memorandum requesting members of his family to make certain other donations, most of which are private in their nature.

Eight St. Louis institutions are to receive under this memorandum a total of $40,000, making the total bequests for charitable purposes $210,000. The estate is valued at $500,000.

ATTORNEY ARGUES
FOR ANOTHER TRIAL

States Objections to Conviction
of Alleged Dynamiters.

Chicago, Oct. 30.—Objections to the convictions of thirty of the thirty-three "dynamite plotters" at Indianapolis last December were laid before the United States circuit court of appeals in an appeal of the men to have the verdict set aside.

Among other allegations of counsel was the charge that the men had been punished twice for the same offense. On behalf of Frank M. Ryan, president of the Iron Workers union, Olaf A. Tveitmo, San Francisco, and the other labor union officials adjudged guilty of complicity in the McNamara dynamite plots, Chester H. Krum, their chief counsel, argued before the court:

That even if the defendants had been guilty of illegally transporting dynamite and nitroglycerin on passenger trains in violation of federal law, and even if they had blown up the work of contractors who refused to join the union, the statute of limitation had run against the offenses before the men were tried.

That the federal court at Indianapolis committed an error in allowing Orrie E. McManigal and Edward Clark, confessed dynamiters, to testify against the other men, because Clark and McManigal were co-defendants and their testimony was incompetent.

That the destruction of nonunion work was an offense against the state and not against the federal government.

Since then she has sent back $24,000, she said, to the heads of the Chicago concern.

Colorado Miners and Guards
Must Give Up Guns.

FEDERAL OFFICIALS MAY ACT

Possible Government Complications Are Precipitated by the Alleged Burning of a Postoffice and Rifling and Destroying of Mail—Bomb Explosion, Bridge Burning and Pitched Battle Are Reported.

Trinidad, Colo., Oct. 30.—A bomb explosion in the camp of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company at Sopris, the burning of a bridge of the Colorado and Wyoming railway between Segundo and Primero and a pitched battle between strikers and guards at Delagua were reported to Adjutant General Chase.

A detachment of militiamen was sent to Sopris.

Trinidad, Colo., Oct. 30.—Violence among striking miners in the Southern Colorado coal fields shifted from Ludlow and its immediate vicinity to Aguilar, six miles north of the Ludlow tent colony.

Possible federal complications were precipitated at the office of the Southern Western Fuel company, where a battle waged between strikers and a handful of mine guards.

After defeating the guards and capturing the mine offices, in which the postoffice also is housed, the strikers are charged with having set fire to the building, which was destroyed, together with its contents of United States mail, money orders and money.

Postmaster Samples declared there were evidences that the mail had been rifled before the building was fired, as envelopes, opened, were found nearby, half burned.

The strikers' camp at Ludlow was devoid of all show of rifles and revolvers which had been prevalent for the last two days. Only two rifles were in evidence, in the hands of two strikers acting as pickets upon the side of the camp bordering the mine property.

Officers of the Colorado national guard, which completed its organization and established its camp on the outskirts of the city, say the rifles and ammunition of the strikers had not been surrendered to them.

Mine guards and strikers have been given twenty-four hours to surrender their arms and ammunition to the state forces.

EATON CASE GOES TO JURY

Widow's Lawyer Paints His Client as a Martyr.

Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 30.—The case of Jennie May Eaton, charged with the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. Eaton, was given to the jury.

Almost the entire day was taken up with the arguments of counsel, the charge of Judge Aiken occupying only half an hour at the end.

William A. Morse, counsel for Mr. Eaton, spoke for four hours, drawing a picture of the defendant as a loving, self-sacrificing wife, entirely justified in her beliefs about her husband.

She was a "martyr" and her only fault was that she "loved too much," her attorney declared.

District Attorney Albert F. Barker, after outlining the evidence against the accused, asked that if the jury believed the defendant was irresponsible she be found "not guilty by reason of insanity."

"She is more dangerous than a rattlesnake and there is no telling whom she may bite next if she is allowed her freedom," he added.

missionary here, and has for his territory Crow Wing, Cass, Morrison and liams, D. D., secretary of Missions,

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF HAIR STOPS FALLING

Girls! Try this! Makes hair thick, glossy, fluffy, beautiful—No
more itching scalp

Within ten minutes after an application of Danderine you cannot find a single trace of dandruff or a loose or falling hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few week's use, when you will actually see new hair, fine
and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little Danderine will immediately double the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance, the beauty
and shimmer of true hair beauty.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove to yourself tonight—now—that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Dander-ine.—Adv.

BELIEVED TO HAVE DROWNED

Overtured Duck Boat Marks Hunting Tragedy in Which George A. Keene Lost Life

BOAT ON VAN DOREN LAKE

Son-in-Law Hunting on Marquis Lake Missed Him at Night and Finds Boat in Morning

An overturned duck boat, floating aimlessly on Van Doren lake near Pelican this morning marks a hunting tragedy in which it is believed George A. Keene, a prominent real estate man, Mason and pioneer of Brainerd, lost his life while hunting Wednesday.

In company with his son-in-law, Robert H. Tinkelpaugh, Mr. Keene went to Sol Marquis' place at Pelican and Mr. Tinkelpaugh hunted on Marquis lake while Mr. Keene was alone on Van Doren lake.

At night both were to meet at camp. Mr. Keene failed to show up and this morning Mr. Tinkelpaugh found the empty duck boat. A searching party of friends from Brainerd is searching lake and shore for the body. In the auto leaving for the scene of the tragedy were F. S. Parker, N. H. Ingersoll and many other old friends.

Fred Marquis, son of Sol Marquis, came from his home today and said that Messrs. Keene and Tinkelpaugh had not stopped at his father's place. He said that on the way down the M. & I. this noon he had heard of a man being lost near Nisswa.

At the home of Mr. Keene it was stated that Mr. Keene and Mr. Tinkelpaugh left Brainerd Monday and had their hunting outfit and dog taken to Paul Marquis' place. They had expected Sam Parker to go with them, but he was unable to leave his business. The hunting trip was to terminate today and the team ordered by them left this morning at 7 o'clock to bring down their outfit.

BOAT IS FOUND FROZEN IN LAKE

Special to Dispatch:

Merrifield, Minn., Oct. 30, 2:20 P. M.—A member of the party searching for George A. Keene, says the duck boat was found 200 feet from shore, frozen in the bay at the lake near Paul Marquis' place. Near the boat were the decoys frozen in the ice.

It is thought that Mr. Keene probably took the boat to get a duck and accidentally fell into the water.

Mr. Tinkelpaugh has not been found and it is believed he is with a searching party working in another direction.

A crew is now engaged in breaking the ice at the lake. Others have come to Merrifield to get grappling hooks and other tools.

Eczema and Itching Cured

Dr. Hobson's Eczema Ointment is guaranteed to speedily heal eczema, rashes, ringworm, tetter and other unsightly eruptions. Eczema Ointment is a doctor's prescription, not an experiment. All druggists or by mail, 50c. Pfeiffer Chemical Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis.—Adv.

BODY FOUND NEAR BOAT

Special to The Dispatch: Merrifield, Minn., Oct. 30, 3 P. M.—The body of George A. Keene was found near the duck boat lying in a few feet of water where he had fallen when the boat overturned 200 feet from shore. The remains are being sent to Brainerd.

MRS. EATON IS ACQUITTED

Special to Dispatch: Plymouth, Mass., Oct. 30—After seven months imprisonment on a charge of having murdered her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph G. It was just before day-break when the jury which had been out since late yesterday afternoon filed into court and announced the acquittal of the accused woman.

ENGINE DERAILED AT DEERWOOD

Special to Dispatch: Deerwood, Minn., Oct. 30—A derailed freight engine has delayed two passenger trains, No. 55 and the Flyer several hours while crews are working to repair the track and get the road engine back on the rails.

CONFORMING WITH CASHMAN LAW

Special to Dispatch: St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 30—The Minnesota Railroad and Warehouse Commission today announced that the schedule of freight rates had been prepared to conform with the Cashman distance tariff law enacted by the last legislature and effective on January 1. The new rates in the main differ little from the freight rates adopted in 1907 and held valid by the United States Supreme Court last June except that they both are maximum and minimum rates while the existing rates are only maximum rates.

IS OPPOSED TO THE DITCHES

Lieut.-Col. Charles L. Potter States He Will Have to Report Unfavorably on Project of

A CANAL CONNECTING LAKES

Such Canal Connecting Four Lakes Would be of no Benefit to Gull Lake Reservoir

At a hearing held in the court house this morning, Lieut.-Col. Chas. L. Potter, district engineer of the government and stationed at St. Paul, gave it as his opinion that he would have to report unfavorably to Congress on the project to establish a canal connecting the chain of Gull and Round and Round and Long lakes, that such canal would not be of any benefit to the reservoir and that instead of requiring $13,000 to finish such a project, it would take from $30,000 to $40,000 and such money spent would be spent for a useless purpose, except to fulfill promises people had believed in because of an act of congress to the effect that a canal and reservoir were to be built.

Mr. Potter presided at the hearing, answered all questions and bore the brunt of the broadside of objections leveled at the course he intended to pursue in regard to the canal.

Sitting near him were John Wade and E. J. Dugan, engineers of the government department, who answered queries propounded by Col. Potter.

Among those present were Dr. J. L. Camp, John Carlson, A. Mahlum, Charles Mahlum, A. L. Hoffman, R. R. Wise, J. P. Anderson, D. K. Fullerton, Judge W. H. Mantor representing C. E. Pope of Pittsburg and F. S. Parker, Arthur L. Mampel, J. H. Davidson, assistant engineer of the Minnesota & International railway, Louis Knudsen, Frank Lowey, S. H. Parker, J. M. Elder, N. H. Ingersoll and others.

Among the communications read was that of Anton Mahlum and it is given first because it clearly states why the people favored the project of a canal and how they gave easement deeds for flowage to the government. Mr. Mahlum's letter, which follows, was read and made a part of the record.

Anton Mahlum's communication read:

I am in receipt of your notice of a public hearing to be held in Brainerd, Minn., on Thursday, October 30th, 1913 at 9 o'clock A. M., for the consideration of the advisability of constructing ditches to connect Gull, Round and Long lakes in connection with the Gull lake reservoir, and inviting interested parties to be present.

I am interested because of being the fee owner of approximately 5 1/2 miles of shore line, about 3 miles of which is on Long lake and about 1 1/2 miles on Round lake. I own fractional section 6, town 134, range 28; fractional section 1 lots 1, 2 and 3 of section 2 and lot 1 of section 12, all in town 134, range 29 and fractional south half of section 31, town 135, range 28.

Shortly after the passage of the act of Congress providing for the Gull Lake Dam project, Mr. J. M. Elder, acting as local agent for the War Department in securing Easement Deeds for the necessary overflowage, came to me with a proposition to give the government such deed of easement covering land embracing a tract of about 109 acres located in the south half of section 31, town 135, range 28, offering at the same time to pay therefor at $3.00 per acre, which he stated was the maximum price allowed. Mr. Elder also, at the same time, exhibited a printed clipping which he said was a copy of the act of Congress creating the Gull Lake Dam project. The act according to this printed clipping provided for an appropriation of $70,000.00 to build a low dam at the head of Gull river and canals connecting Gull, Round and Long lakes, providing the necessary overflowage was furnished the government free of cost. I took the proposition under advisement and occasionally saw Mr. Elder, who informed me that Major Davenport of the Corps of Engineers for the War Department at St. Paul, and since deceased, would be here at a certain time and asked me to meet him, which I accordingly did. Major Davenport explained further about the project and as I was particularly interested in the canal feature of the project, I questioned him at some length on the subject; there being no question in my mind as to whether the canals would be built or not. The only question which interested me was the location, as I owned the land in one of the two probable locations for such canal between Round and Long lakes, whereupon the Major stated that such canal would be constructed along the natural watercourse, which runs through the said Sec. 31 and through Sec. 32, T. 135, R. 28, and through Lot 2, Sec. 5, T. 134, R. 28, coupling the statement of Major Davenport with the language in the act of Congress, I felt assured of the location and construction of the canals, and so assured the Major that I would forthwith execute to the government the required Easement Deed for the overflowage. I reasoned that the benefits accruing to me from the location and construction of the canal through my land along the creek course would

BOAT ON VAN DOREN LAKE

Son-in-Law Hunting on Marquis Lake Missed Him at Night and Finds Boat in Morning

An overturned duck boat, floating aimlessly on Van Doren lake near Pelican this morning marks a hunting tragedy in which it is believed George A. Keene, a prominent real estate man, Mason and pioneer of Brainerd, lost his life while hunting Wednesday.

In company with his son-in-law, Robert H. Tinkelpaugh, Mr. Keene went to Sol Marquis' place at Pelican and Mr. Tinkelpaugh hunted on Marquis lake while Mr. Keene was alone on Van Doren lake.

At night both were to meet at camp. Mr. Keene failed to show up and this morning Mr. Tinkelpaugh found the empty duck boat. A searching party of friends from Brainerd is searching lake and shore for the body. In the auto leaving for the scene of the tragedy were F. S. Parker, N. H. Ingersoll and many other old friends.

Fred Marquis, son of Sol Marquis, came from his home today and said that Messrs. Keene and Tinkelpaugh had not stopped at his father's place. He said that on the way down the M. & I. this noon he had heard of a man being lost near Nisswa.

At the home of Mr. Keene it was stated that Mr. Keene and Mr. Tinkelpaugh left Brainerd Monday and had their hunting outfit and dog taken to Paul Marquis' place. They had expected Sam Parker to go with them, but he was unable to leave his business. The hunting trip was to terminate today and the team ordered by them left this morning at 7 o'clock to bring down their outfit.

BOAT IS FOUND FROZEN IN LAKE

Special to Dispatch: Merrifield, Minn., Oct. 30, 2:20 P. M.—A member of the party searching for George A. Keene, says the duck boat was found 200 feet from shore, frozen in the bay at the lake near Paul Marquis' place. Near the boat were the decoys frozen in the ice.

It is thought that Mr. Keene probably took the boat to get a duck and accidentally fell into the water.

Mr. Tinkelpaugh has not been found and it is believed he is with a searching party working in another direction.

A crew is now engaged in breaking the ice at the lake. Others have come to Merrifield to get grappling hooks and other tools.

offset the detriment to the marketable value of the land by reason of the overflow clause. Had I allowed the question of overflowage to be determined through condemnation proceedings, I would have received several times the amount of $3.00 per acre received as aforesaid. Had I not placed faith in the construction of the canals I should not have relinquished the right to overflow voluntarily.

The correctness of the foregoing statement will be corroborated by Mr. Elder, except as to my references to the conversation had with Major Davenport.

As to the possible contention that the construction of the canals in question will materially lower the waters in Long lake, I make this suggestion: For the past three seasons there has been no water running through the creek from Long to Round lake, by reason of a greater evaporation than precipitation in this period. As the land composing the watershed of Long lake becomes cultivated it is reasonable to suppose that such cultivation will result in an increased absorption of the precipitation in such watershed, with a resulting natural lowering of the waters. On the other hand, were the canals constructed, a water level on Long lake would be on a parity with that of Gull lake. It is evident that the act of Congress contemplated the canal construction as a part of the Reservoir Project, especially as a subsequent appropriation of $15,000.00 was secured to complete the scheme.

Aside from the benefits accruing to navigation through the connecting of said lakes, our making available a continuous shore line of upwards of 200 miles, and affording rail and water connection with the Dam; the incidental benefits of this locality through the establishment of tourist and summer resort traffic would be very great, so that the government in adhering to its representations, would cause no disappointment, whereas the contrary would be the case were it to depart from its original intentions.

established which would equal in beauty any scenery in the Adirondacks.

John Carlson said in his letter that he was in favor of a canal between Gull and Round and Long lakes for the following reasons.

1. Because it will make better shores on Long lake due to the lowering of the lake.

2. It will result in increased summer resorts, bringing more people into this section of the country.

3. It will enable people of either of the lakes to enjoy the sports on the other lakes.

George R. West said he favored the canal because it would give better landing places on the lakes for the boats and would give more territory for boating.

S. H. Parker presented a petition signed by practically every resident of Merrifield and which favored the construction of the canal, that such a project would not injure the shore property and the petitioners earnestly hoped that it would be completed according to the act of Congress creating the Gull Lake Reservoir Project.

Col. Potter, in answer to A. L. Hoffman's arguments, said that Long Lake as a part of the reservoir was a failure. The ditch was of no use to the government, said the colonel. The matter of navigation had not been considered by the government. In order to put in the ditch it would be necessary to spend two or three times as much money as first appropriated and it would be necessary to ask Congress for another appropriation.

J. M. Elder said he wanted what the people wanted. The fact of the canal being promised had been a factor in many people locating there.

J. P. Anderson wanted to know why the government wished to go back on its promise to build the canal, even if the reservoir was not such a great success.

Col. Potter said the act of Congress was no promise of the completion of the canal. He had to act on conditions as they were and so make his report. Observations in regard to the rainfall and the run off the lake had changed their opinion of the whole matter. To honestly change his opinion regarding a matter on which he had been misinformed was no deception.

"In my report," said Col. Potter, "I would have to state that this work cost a great deal more than was first estimated. I would have to state that more money was needed for a project that was totally unnecessary and of no advantage to the reservoir. Of course, if you have a political pull, you can work against this. We'll put in all the literature given us."

F. B. Lynch, in his communication, said it was a matter of indifference with him as to the completion of the ditch. But as a matter of good faith to the people who gave the flowage rights the canal should be completed.

Leon E. Lum, in his letter, said he was opposed to the canal. It would prove an injury to all property on Gull and Round and Long lakes. Long lake had practically no inflow. Mud flats would form there and smaller lakes below Long lake.

R. R. Wise took exception to Mr. Lum's arguments and said Mr. Lum's reasons were purely mercenary.

Col. Potter said the government had the right to bring the lakes to the level of the 1191 datum line. Last year the water had been down to the 1194 level.

J. P. Anderson said bringing Long lake down 4 feet would not be a detriment to that body of water.

When the hearing closed, it was very evident that the canal project was a dead one, so far as the United States engineers were concerned. The only solution appears to make an appeal to the senator and congressman of the district.

"Only one woman out of a thousand can whistle," says a contemporary. Sure, brother; she doesn't stop talking long enough to get the right powder.—Commercial Appeal, Memphis.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it incurable, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by J. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Catarrh Pills for constipation.

established which would equal in beauty any scenery in the Adirondacks.

John Carlson said in his letter that he was in favor of a canal between Gull and Round and Long lakes for the following reasons.

1. Because it will make better shores on Long lake due to the lowering of the lake.

2. It will result in increased summer resorts, bringing more people into this section of the country.

3. It will enable people of either of the lakes to enjoy the sports on the other lakes.

George R. West said he favored the canal because it would give better landing places on the lakes for the boats and would give more territory for boating.

S. H. Parker presented a petition signed by practically every resident of Merrifield and which favored the construction of the canal, that such a project would not injure the shore property and the petitioners earnestly hoped that it would be completed according to the act of Congress creating the Gull Lake Reservoir Project.

Col. Potter, in answer to A. L. Hoffman's arguments, said that Long Lake as a part of the reservoir was a failure. The ditch was of no use to the government, said the colonel. The matter of navigation had not been considered by the government. In order to put in the ditch it would be necessary to spend two or three times as much money as first appropriated and it would be necessary to ask Congress for another appropriation.

J. M. Elder said he wanted what the people wanted. The fact of the canal being promised had been a factor in many people locating there.

J. P. Anderson wanted to know why the government wished to go back on its promise to build the canal, even if the reservoir was not such a great success.

Col. Potter said the act of Congress was no promise of the completion of the canal. He had to act on conditions as they were and so make his report. Observations in regard to the rainfall and the run off the lake had changed their opinion of the whole matter. To honestly change his opinion regarding a matter on which he had been misinformed was no deception.

I would have to state that more money was needed for a project that was totally unnecessary and of no advantage to the reservoir. Of course, if you have a political pull, you can work against this. Make a demand for the project. We'll put in all the literature given us."

F. B. Lynch, in his communication, said it was a matter of indifference with him as to the completion of the ditch. But as a matter of good faith to the people who gave the flowage rights the canal should be completed.
